Neighborhood Watch Benefits

The Roanoke County Police keep Neighborhood Watch Groups informed of activities in their area by:

A monthly crime prevention newsletter. A monthly Neighborhood Watch Selected Activities Listing report is included with the newsletter. A Citizen Police Academy is held twice a year to educate citizens about the police department.

Neighborhood Watch "ALERTS", that are either sent by e-mail or by telephone, keep coordinators advised of breaking criminal activities in their area.

A web site that contains information about the Roanoke County Police Department.

Finally, Neighborhood Watch Meetings, where the police and citizens can discuss crime producing problems and devise possible solutions.
